TROLLEY WAITING STATION Needed at Terminal of Norwich Line -Many Complaints From Traveling

"Where do I get the Norwich trolley?" "Right across the railroad tracks." "Is there a waiting room?"
"No, you'll have to wait on the sidewalk." This is familiar talk on Main street. Many people leave the steam railroad at this city and take the trolley for Norwich and New London way and have to wait here in some cases over half an hour. The trolley company has not deemed it necessary to provide a waiting station, so the passengers have to wait on the sidewalk. When the weather is bad, rainy or snowy, the cars are late, just when it is most disagreeable to wait. It seems as if the trolley company could in the police court Tuesday morning, John O'Donneli, charged with in.
